VOL. XXVI.—NO. 112.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 10, 1895.

PRICE 2 CTS.

MEDICINAL.
SMALL BUT EFFECTIVE.
Was the little Monitor that met the Merrimack at Hampton Roads. So too are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, effective in conquering the enemy—disease. When you take a pill it's an important point to have them small—provided they have equal strength and efficacy. You find what you want in the little liver pills of Dr. Pierce. They're put up in a better way, and they act in a better way, than the huge old-fashioned pills. What you want when you're "all out of sorts"—grumpy, thick-headed and take a gloomy view of life, is these Pellets to clear up your system and start your liver into beneficial action. Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are prevented, relieved and cured. Put up in sealed glass vials, and always fresh and reliable.

ELLY'S CREAM BALM.
Apply a particle of the Balm will try into the nostrils. After a moment draw a strong breath through the nose. Use three times a day, after meals preferred, and before retiring.

ELLY'S CREAM BALM COLD IN HEAD.
It opens the Nasal Passages, Allays Pain and Inflammation, Heals the Sores, Protects the Mucous Membrane from Colds, Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. The Balm is quickly absorbed and gives relief at once. Price 50 cents at Druggists or by mail.

ARABIAN BITTERS.
—AN OLD AND RELIABLE TONIC—
Better than Quinine. Pleasant and Effective. No ringing in the head. Cures Malaria and all Malarial troubles. Persons suffering with Rheumatism or General Debility, have Malaria in their System. Never allow your system to run down; many other troubles are liable to follow. ARABIAN BITTERS will cure you. Give you an appetite. Make you rest well. Strengthen and build you up. For Coughs, Colds, or Influenza, nothing better!

A MAN IN THE SOFA.
A story of what appears to be not only a new but a clever scheme for robbing a house in broad daylight was discovered yesterday among those who reside in the fashionable part of east Seventy-sixth street. They learned that three or four days ago a furniture wagon bearing no name was driven up to the residence of Nathan Hoffheimer. It was early in the day, but nearly all the members of the household were absent.
The wagon remained in front of the door for some time and then two men alighted. One of them gave the door bell a vigorous pull. There were two servants in the house at the time and they had been watching the wagon from the front window. One of them opened the door in response to the man's ring and inquired his errand.
"Is Mrs. Hoffheimer at home?" he inquired.
"No," replied the servant, "she has gone out and will not return until late in the afternoon."
"Well, I've got a sofa which I was ordered to leave upstairs in the front room," the man said. Then he explained that Mrs. Hoffheimer had ordered the sofa from a furniture house and he had been instructed to deliver it.

The servant said there must be a mistake, but the man suggested that his employer might be displeased if he was not allowed to leave the sofa. Then the servant asked the man to remain at the door a few minutes while she consulted with the other servant about the matter. Both servants agreed that the circumstance was somewhat strange, but not knowing that Mrs. Hoffheimer did not order a sofa, they decided to accept it. At the same time they concluded to watch the men closely.
One servant went up stairs and prepared the room for the reception of the piece of furniture. The other servant followed, and both remained in the room while the men accomplished their task. The furniture van was driven away and the servants paid no more attention to the occurrence.

Later in the day the same men and the same furniture wagon came back. The men explained that a mistake had been made; that the sofa was not ordered by Mrs. Hoffheimer, but by another person. They offered many apologies to the servant for the "stupid blunder" which they said had been made by one of the shipping clerks of the furniture store, and were permitted to take the sofa away.

When the family returned the occurrence was reported. Little was thought of it until later in the evening. According to the story discussed among the neighbors a search of the room developed the fact that some valuable silverware was missing, as well as one or two articles of jewelry. The girls were positive that the men could have taken nothing, as they were closely watched all the time they were in the house. The family pondered over the problem and evolved the theory that there was a third man in the case and that he had been secreted in the interior of the sofa.

When I called at Mr. Hoffheimer's residence the other night his daughter told me nothing had been stolen from the house. "Many persons," she said, "including detectives, have been asking all sorts of questions about it."
"Now, I'll tell you how it all occured. A lady called at the house the other day and told mamma a most peculiar story, which she had read in a book. It was about two men who took a sofa to the house, and they had a man hidden in it. Then they came back and took it away, and the man meantime had stolen a lot of silver and jewelry. Just as the lady had told mamma this story a wagon drove up to the door, and two men asked permission to leave a sofa here, which they said had been ordered by her. Mamma told them she had ordered no sofa, and they went away."—N. Y. Herald.

A WORD ABOUT LADIES' SILK
Shirt Waists.
A fact that you are perhaps not aware of. Do you know that we are manufacturers of these goods? True it is that we have one of the largest shirt waist factories in this country. Our plant is in Philadelphia. We employ a large force of hands and supply the representative houses of the country with our product.

Therefore does it not appear reasonable that our prices must be right and below competition? You do not pay the middleman's profit. You are buying direct from the manufacturer and paying only a small advance above first cost.
Our goods are all made over LIVING MODELS by expert hands and a fit is guaranteed. The workmanship is unexcelled. In consequence of these facts we are warranted in asserting that we can sell you a waist complete at the price you pay for the material alone. Don't believe us; come in and convince yourselves.

The leader is the one at $3.99. It would not be high at $6; in fact that is the regular price. Made out of changeable Taffete Silk. It contains 5 yards. The retail price of the silk is 75c per yard. An immense variety of others of equal good values. We wont attempt to describe them; it would not do them justice; you would not understand; you must see them for yourselves.

We have plenty of the new very popular Linen Chimesettes so extensively worn.
All styles, all grades, all prices. Your attention is invited.

Mr. C. T. Brown, Richmond, Va.: Dear Sir:—I have analyzed the Tivoli Portner Beer, manufactured by the Robert Portner Brewing Company, of Alexandria, Va., and find that it is pure and, in all respects, of excellent quality. It is unexceptionable as a beverage, and I recommend it especially for medicinal use.
